

2018 NAIA CHAMPIONS!

“I am Third”

Dear Friends and Family,

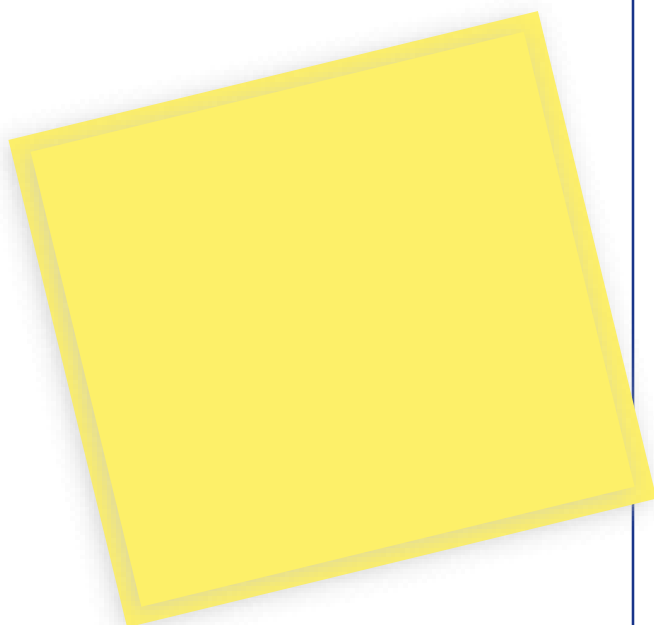

Our basketball team has made a list of the important people in our lives. I hope you don't mind that I've included you.

Here's why: my goal is to raise $1,900 for our Team's mission trip to the Dominican Republic this August. As you know, the Dominican is a beautiful but also a poverty stricken nation. I am so excited to committing my summer to impact others, especially for the sake of Christ.

During this trip we will work on community and infrastructure projects like building a church. We will also bring smiles to kids of all ages as we teach them the game of basketball.

Our program is built upon the “I am Third” principle. (God first, others second and myself third). I can think of no better way to live this out than a mission trip. I really believe that this trip will help me grow along with bringing our team closer together. That's why you can have a real impact upon my life. I am grateful for your support and will continue to make you proud! I would also ask that you commit to praying for our team as we seek to impact the Dominicans.
